Matthew Dominic Dizon

dominic.dizon@obf.ateneo.edu | 0917-109-0557 | matthewdizon.com

Passionate Full Stack Software Developer who is eager to learn new technologies and generate remarkable innovations. Currently, a student at Ateneo de Manila University studying Management Information Systems with a Specialization in Data Science & Analytics & the Vice President of Engineering at User Experience Society

WORK EXPERIENCE

User Experience Society

Vice President of Engineering   June 2021 - Present
- Construct the initiatives of the UX Dev Department which focuses on Projects and Education in Engineering for the members and the entire organization
    - Projects in Engineering — manage software development tasks of client-work projects while working together with a team of UI/UX Designers and Project Managers
    - Education in Engineering — collating software development resources and conducting workshops for UXDev members
- Arrange and handle software development-related talks and workshops
    - Programming Fundamentals
    - An Intro to HTML & CSS
- Added a new component per request of the client to the HEIGHTS Ateneo Website — Literary and Artistic Publication and Organization of the Ateneo de Manila University
- Revamped the UXSoc Applications Website for AY 2021-2022 — Primer and Application for UXSociety Applicants

Associate Vice President of Backend Engineering   February 2021 - June 2021
- Assisted the VP of Engineering in software development work together with the AVP of Frontend Engineering
- Worked on the Aegis AdMU Website as a full stack developer — Yearbook Committee of Ateneo de Manila University
- Worked on the OurSanggu Website as the developer lead — Sole Autonomous Student Government of Ateneo de Manila University

Google Developer Student Club Loyola

Senior Software Engineer   October 2021 - Present
- Currently one of the Senior Software Engineers in the organization

Web Engineering Committee Member   November 2020 - May 2021
- Worked on the Brigada E-Skwela Website as a frontend developer — A non-stock, non-profit, youth-led organization that conducts various education-based programs

Punta

Co-Founder & Chief Technology Officer   May 2020 - June 2021
- Punta was a startup that aimed to build a platform for service providers in the Philippines and connect them to people who were in need of their services

EDUCATION

Ateneo de Manila University   August 2019 - Present

BS Management Information Systems
- Consistent Dean's Lister
- Specialization in Data Science and Analytics (Artificial Intelligence, Data Visualization, Natural Language Processing)
- Ateneo Financial Aid Scholar

Xavier University — Ateneo de Cagayan   June 2014 - March 2019

Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics
- Junior High School & Senior High School
- Student Government (Department of Formation and Social Action) — SHS Ambassador (2018-2019)
    - Project Head of an initiative called Bito Bottles which promoted students to make Eco Bricks. These were collected and turned over to an organization who utilized the assembled Eco Bricks.
    - Involved in other student government-related initiatives.
- Football Varsity Team — Team Captain (2018-2019)
- Light Cavalry Leadership Community — Fund Committee Head (2016-2017)
    - Facilitated several leadership and training programs of lower year levels
    - Coordinated with the LCLC Treasurer regarding the funding of initiatives

SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Skills: Full Stack Software Development (Python, JavaScript, Django, React), Data Preprocessing & Visualization, Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning, Leadership, Time Management, Communication, Organization, Planning, Problem-Solving, Flexibility, Writing, Public Speaking
- Interests: Reading, Self-Development, Podcasts, Blockchain Technology, Cryptocurrencies, NFTs, Physical Fitness